

COMING UP THIS FALL!

PREPARING FOR DIVERSITY: MEDICAL SPANISH AND NURSE ROLE IN NORTH AMERICA

FALL 2005

The course, Preparing for Diversity: Medical Spanish and the Nurse Role in North America, is a free educational offering in preparation for the course N3006: Cultural Expeditions in Nursing, coming up in Winter Semester 2006.

The course includes:

- ❖ Overview of nurse role in North America
- ❖ FREE introductory lessons to medical Spanish
- ❖ Networking with local partners and ethnic populations

The course will be held every Thursday from 4:00 to 6:00 PM in S265 during Fall Semester.

Meet your instructors on Thursday, August 25th at 4:00 pm in S265!

This project is sponsored in part by the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE), U.S. Department of Education

DO YOU?

- ❖ Want to participate in a cultural immersion experience in México or Canada?
- ❖ Want to learn Spanish?
- ❖ Want to learn more about culture and health care beliefs and values held by people from México and Canada?

WINTER 2006

- ❖ Students and registered nurses take the web-enhanced course N3006 Cultural Expeditions in Nursing
- ❖ The course can be taken as an elective as a part of the undergraduate nursing curriculum and provides 3 hours of credit
- ❖ It is highly recommended that students planning to go on exchange to México take a course in Spanish

MAY 2006

Limited stipends

Students and registered nurses participate in a local clinical experience or in a

Student Exchange

in México or Canada

Alice Kuehn S322 School of Nursing 882-0232 kuehna@missouri.edu
Jessica Mueller S439 School of Nursing 884-9212 muellerjes@missouri.edu

www.nursingfutures.org